DEDICATION

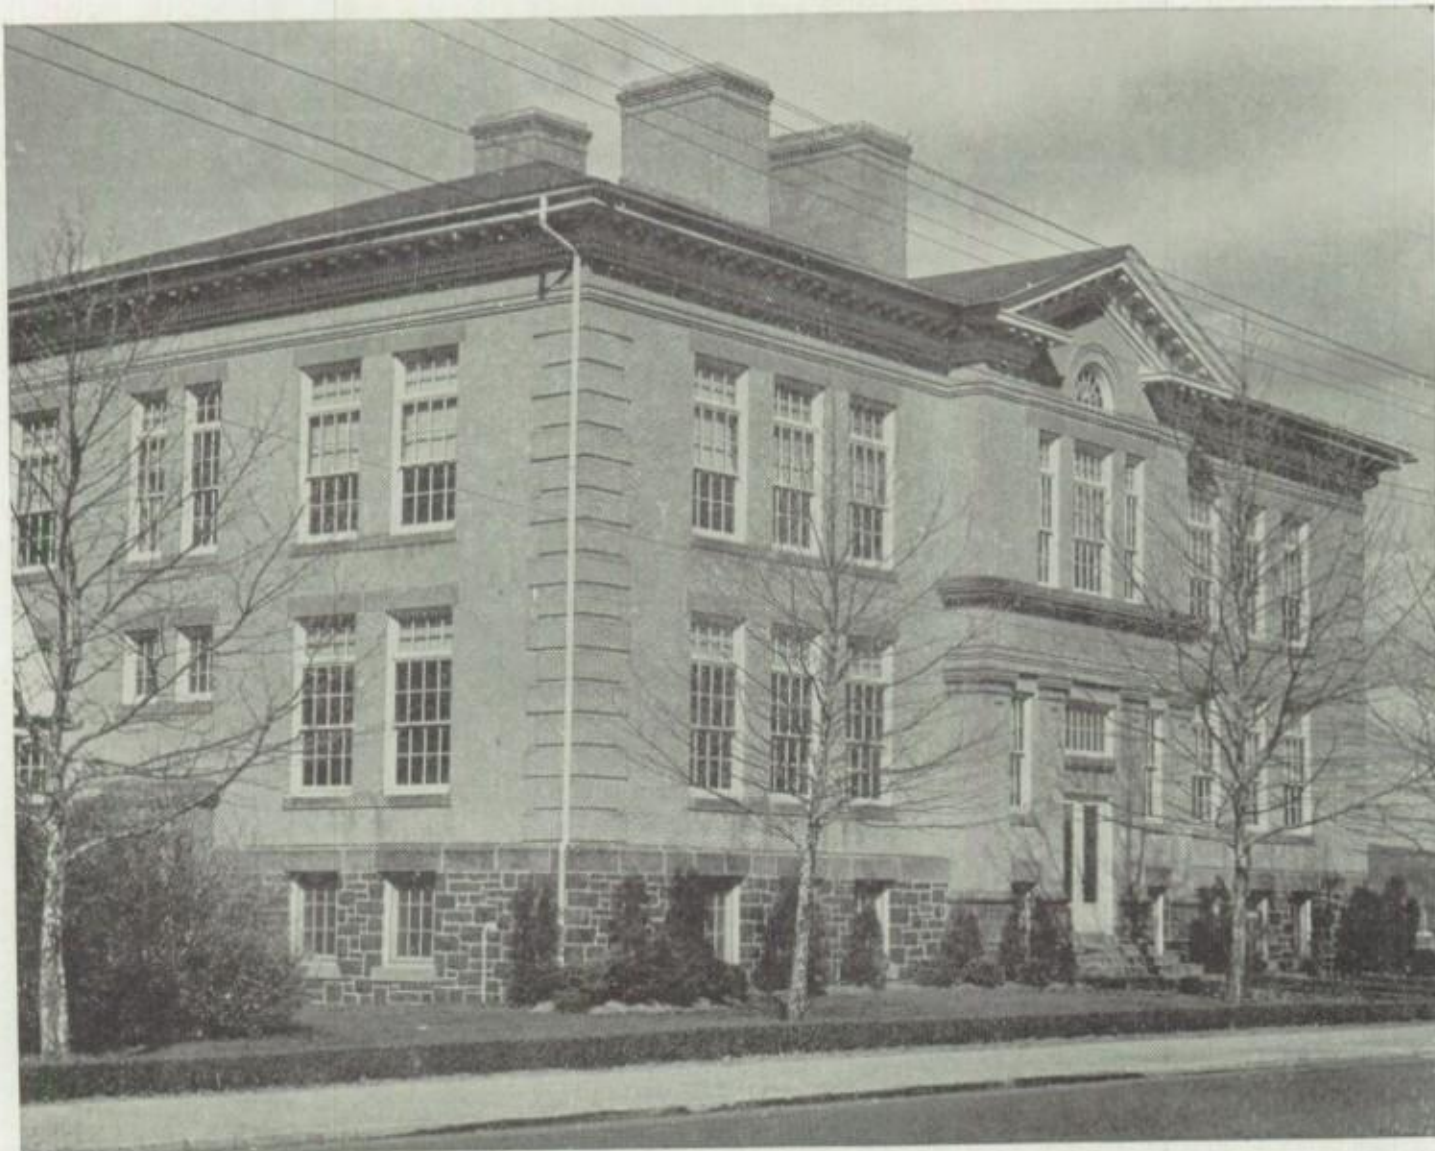

We, the members of the class of '48, hereby dedicate this edition of the CONIFER to our reorganized alumni association, which has done so much during the past year to aid the school.

Through this dedication, the class of '48 endeavors to show its appreciation in a small way to this great organization. It is our earnest hope and prayer that it may continue its splendid progress, and serve future classes as faithfully as it has those of today.

ELECTRIC SCOREBOARD AND CLOCK PRESENTED BY ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

OLD MAIN

ALMA MATER

Dear comrades true and loyal,
Join in our song of cheer;
To thee dear Alma Mater,
As now we gather here.
Our hearts are filled with longing
Of one we fondly love,
And whose memory lingers ever
No matter where we rove.

We love our dear old high school
And school mates everyone,
To gold and black we're faithful
Till life's work here is done.
And through our every effort,
We'll strive with all our might,
To uphold our dear old High School
In its stand for truth and right.

Though far away we wander,
Still true we'll ever be,
To thee dear Alma Mater
And lessons learned from thee.
And through thy sons and daughters
Thy fame afar shall spread.
And honored by thy noble name
Through lives that they have led.

Board of School Directors

The class of 1948 is indeed a lucky class. Classes for the past seven years have looked forward to being able to enjoy the most modern facilities for physical education and athletics, dramatics, library, art, science, cafeteria, and classes in general. You are among the fortunate ones in this community able to participate in a complete educational program in buildings complete in every detail.

The Board of School Directors wishes you the same good fortune and success for your future.

The Supervising Principal

Stanley M. Kurtz

To the Class of 1948:

According to recent statistics young people under 25 years of age are responsible for more traffic accidents than older folk. This indictment on a class of people whose reaction time should be the most rapid and who thereby should be able to apply the mechanical devices soon enough to avoid mishaps, is serious. It seems to indicate judgment too far out of the way in the first place; or does it mean that youth thinks more of indulging in thrills of speed and dare-deviltry than of preserving human lives?

I hope that through your experiences in the classrooms of East Greenville High School you have developed the attitude of thinking honestly and cautiously before taking action of any kind. Think before you speak and think before you act. May your days be happy ones!

High School Principal

Mark H. Layser

The School year of 1947-1948 marks a new epoch in the history of East Greenville High School. Plans and dreams of progress are this year becoming reality. The addition or completion of our building which provides for necessary school facilities is bringing us, continually, face to face with new problems of organization, administration, and adjustment.

What has been done this year in the interests of a larger and better High School for our community; is, and should be, only another landmark on the pathway of our ultimate aim—that of providing complete and full educational advantages and facilities to all the youths of our school community.

To have been Seniors in this year of changes and growth should enrich your memories of pleasant and worthwhile experiences as students of East Greenville High School.

Mark H. Layser.

Student Council

The Student Council, the student's representative body, which organized to strive for the welfare of the school, was faced with many complex problems in '47 and '48. These problems were concerned chiefly with the regulation and utilization of the new East Greenville High School building. The Student Council, supervised very capably by Mr. Layser, immediately considered these problems and handled them very satisfactorily.

A few of the many notable achievements of this year's Student Council are:

1. Introduction of dancing as form of recreation during noon hour.
2. Provisions made for efficient operation of school cafeteria.
3. Regulation of assembly programs.
4. East Greenville's initial attendance to the Tri-County Student Council Meeting.

The members of the Student Council are as follows:

Senior Class: Charles Wetzel, President; Dorothy Skepton, Secretary; Fred Baas, Treasurer, Harlan Edge, Charles Winzer.

Freshman Class: Wayne Kreider, Jeannette Heimbach.

Grade 8: Ronald Bardman.

Grade 7: Dorothy Schantz.

CLASS OFFICERS

C. Wetzel, Treasurer; B. Wiegner, Secretary; E. Kranzley, President;
G. Angstadt, Vice-President.

Class Song

To the school desks in the classroom,
To the classes none excel,
To the dear old high school halls we love so well—
Sing the Senior class assembled,
With its banners raised on high,
And the magic of their singing casts its spell—
Yes the magic of their singing of the songs we love so well,
Alma Mater and the school songs they're the best—
We will carry on tradition while spirits in us last
And we'll pass and be forgotten with the rest.

Chorus:

We're all fine seniors who will go our way—
Farewell now,
We'll join the crowd which has gone away—
Farewell now.
Gentlemen seniors all are we,
Going from here to eternity,
God will show us the path and key—
Farewell now.

President's Message

As we near the end of a never-to-be forgotten period in our lives, we realize that the most important part of our lives lies before us. The future of us, the coming generation, is a most important factor in the future of our nation. The familiar quotation, "All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players," is definitely applicable to our own future. We shall be the coming doctors and lawyers, the ministers and teachers, the stenographers and clerks, the carpenters and plumbers who will carry on the nation's work. I, as president of the senior class, proudly say that we shall carry on the responsibilities placed upon our shoulders by our forefathers.

In this atomic age no one person can say how long we may live upon this earth. Yet we shape our lives with an optimistic point of view. We carry on as did our fathers. Even though we are constantly seeing greater achievements of science, we readily accept these as realities and incessantly strive for still greater knowledge.

From our school we have received something which will never be erased from our mind. We full well realize how much our education means to us as future citizens of the world. Not only the book learning but also the moulding of our minds and spirits into worthy characters will make us the men and women of tomorrow.

Let it never be said that the Class of '48 shirked its duties and responsibilities. We now leave only the memory of ourselves at E. G. H. S. We hope it is a memory pleasant and inspiring to both our teachers and fellow-students.

Thus we say farewell until our paths cross once again in the future, which we boldly enter into with heads raised high and lips that murmur "I shall be a person worthy of tomorrow's world."

"Growing Pains"

Our Junior Play, "Growing Pains," was presented on April 29 and 30 of last year to two capacity audiences in the Grand Theatre. This was the first Junior Play in the history of E. G. H. S. to be presented two nights. Under the very capable direction of Mrs. Myrtle Groome of the high school faculty, the cast of eighteen boys and girls gave an excellent performance, and the play was acclaimed a success by all who saw it.

The plot revolves around Professor and Mrs. MacIntyre and their two teen-age children, George and Terry. George falls deeply in love with Prudence Darling, a new girl in the neighborhood. Prudence is merely "stringing George along," a fact which he, of course, cannot see, and when she drops him, he falls with a tremendous thud. Terry, who is just getting over her tomboy days and can't seem to realize that she must grow up sometime, has her hands full when she discovers that Prudence is trying to vamp her childhood sweetheart, Brian Stanley. In the escapades that follow there is much hilarity and many enjoyable moments for the audience.

"Dear Ruth"

Dear Ruth, the senior class play, will go down in the annals of East Greenville as an unforgettable production. The audience will long remember the beautiful scenery, the exciting plot, and the superb acting displayed by the cast. The cast, under the skillful direction of Mr. D. E. Carmody was outstanding for its accurate portrayal of the various characters.

The story concerns a young girl, Miriam, a prodigy, who carried on a correspondence with an overseas soldier, Lt. William Seacroft. In these letters Miriam uses her elder sister's name and photograph. Ruth, the elder sister, was of course pursued by Bill upon his return. Bill is unaware of Ruth's engagement to a local banker, Albert Kummer. The climax was reached through a series of hilarious complications and plot twists upsetting completely the established household of Judge Harry Wilkins and his wife Edith. Dora, the Wilkins colored maid; Martha, Bill's sister; Sgt. Chuck Vincent, Bill's friend; and Harold Klobbermeyer comprised the supporting roles.

The success of Dear Ruth, was the result of the co-operation of the entire Senior Class in acting, painting scenery, managing, and gathering of the numerous properties and costumes which are essential parts in any play.

The Band Plays On

Do you want to become a musician and also show good school spirit? Then you should join the band. Besides receiving training, you can attend all football games, and participate in all pep rallies and other school functions.

The band, through participation in parades and concerts, collected enough money to purchase new uniforms this year. The uniforms are military in style and black and gold in color. Coats and hats were purchased and the band is hoping in the future, to purchase pants to match their coats and hats.

This year almost forty boys and girls wished to become members of the band. Thirty of these candidates were given the new uniforms and several others wore capes. Thus the membership of the band numbered approximately thirty-five boys and girls.

The band is exceedingly appreciative of its fine director, Mrs. March, without whose untiring efforts, very little could have been accomplished.

A large measure of the band's success is credited to the interest of parents and friends and also to the faithfulness and co-operation of the band members. Let's give credit where credit is due, and salute our band with pride.

The orchestra is organized for the second semester of each year and is used for activities occurring during this period of time. Rehearsals are held every week during activities period. The instrumentation this year consists of four violins, two clarinets, one baritone, three trumpets, one xylophone, one tenor saxophone, one alto saxophone, one guitar, two snare drums, cymbals, bass drum, and piano.

Let Them Be Heard

If you hear singing while you walk through the corridors of our high school, it will undoubtedly be the sixty-three voices of our Glee Club. This organization shows its talent at many community functions and at various assembly programs.

This year the Glee Club is giving a concert with the orchestra and band. Some of the feature songs will be "Country Style," "Mighty Like A Rose," and the ever popular Fred Waring arrangement of "Onward Christian Soldiers." The Glee Club will sing at Commencement, Baccalaureate Services. They have also participated in many assembly programs and are looking forward to an operetta production next year.

The Glee Club sincerely appreciates the excellent leadership of Mrs. March, whose effort and enthusiasm made the organization such a great success.

F. H. A.

The organization has been entitled Future Homemakers of America, and the members are referred to as Future Homemakers of America. The letters of F. H. A. are being used to designate the organization, its units, or its members.

The purposes which this organization will serve are as follows:

1. To promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking.
2. To emphasize the importance of worthy home membership.
3. To encourage democracy in home and community life.
4. To work for good and family life for all.

The F. H. A. was organized here at East Greenville High School in February, 1947. The following officers were elected in September for 1947 and '48:

President—June Fox

Vice-Presidents—Norma Ackerman
 Geraldine Stahl

Secretary—Esther Benfield

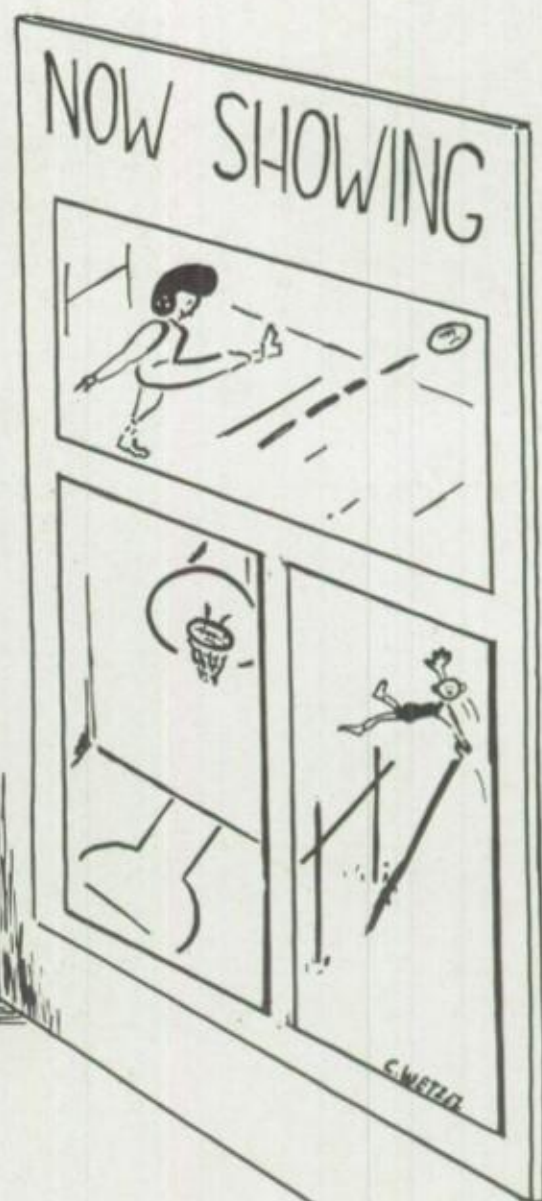

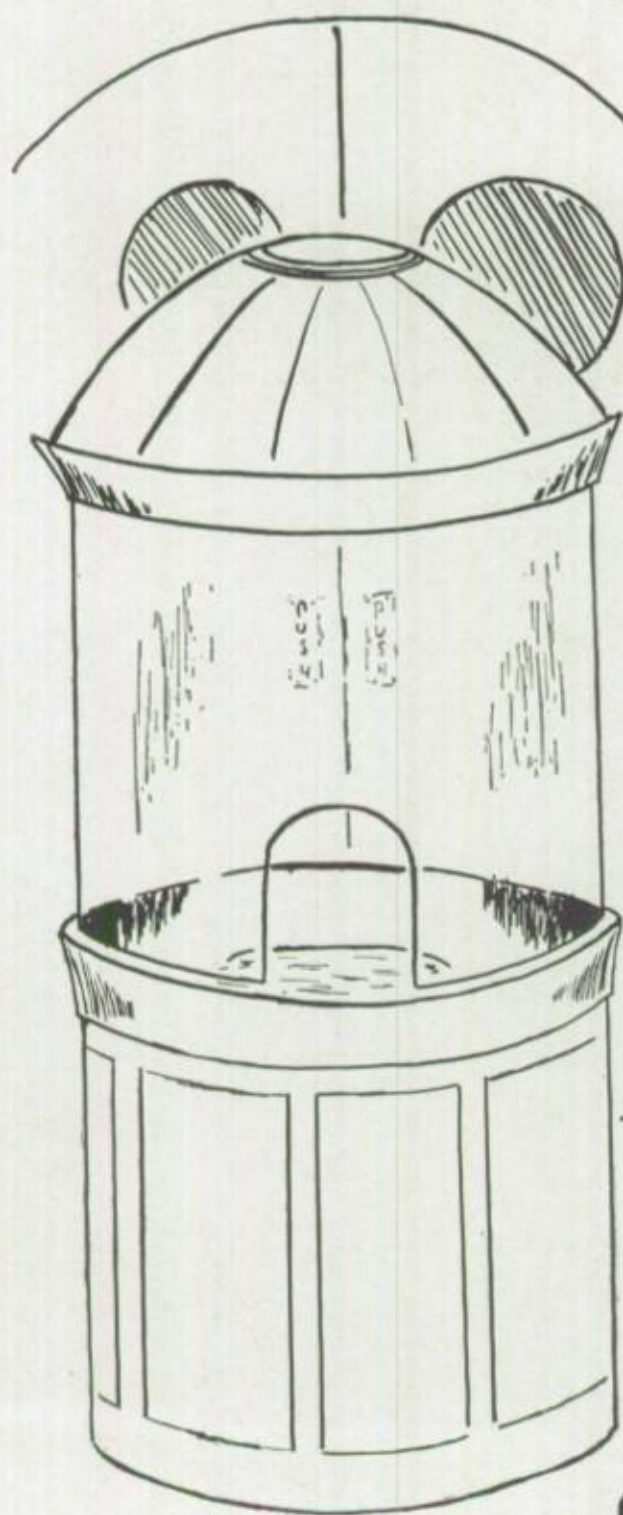

Treasurer—Marian Moyer

Recreation—Eleanor Miller

Eleanor Miller, Betty Baseley, Norma Ackerman, and Esther Benfield represented the Homemakers at the Harrisburg State Farm Show. They were accompanied by Mrs. Yoder. The girls worked in the "Chain Store Council" booth one day, preparing vegetables to be served to the Farm Family. Norma Ackerman and Esther Benfield wrote a song dedicated to the F. H. A. which won a special prize for original words and music. A window display at Pomeroy's Department Store in Harrisburg won first prize for the Homemaking Department. The award consisted of twenty-dollars, a silver cup, and a pressure-cooker.

Football

A hard fighting, but small and inexperienced East Greenville High School football team fought its way through a tough schedule to come through with a record of 3 wins and 7 losses. They tied for second place in the Montco B League.

The Greenies lost their first game to Quakertown under the lights at Quakertown by a 13-0 score. In the next game the Yellow Jackets who were not playing up to par lost to a not too strong Wyomissing team by a 21-13 score. These defeats did not discourage the team. They came back to win over Collegeville and Schwenksville by a 19-0 and 26-6 scores. After these two victories the Greenies faced a strong Norco team, and lost a heart breaker to this team by a close margin of 7-6. This defeat did not take the spirit out of the boys, for after this they traveled to West Pottsgrove to defeat an underestimated Falcon foe by a tight 7-6 score.

On November 1 "Lady Luck" turned her back to E. G. H. S. On this day the Yellow Jackets lost to a neighboring underdog Pennsburg team by the score of 15-7. This unexpected defeat took the wind out of the Greenies' sail. The following week they lost a 19-6 thriller to Emmaus but they did not lose their fighting spirit. An injury riddled team, not having enough men left on its squad to hold a scrimmage, played host to the 1946 champions of the Montco B League, Royersford. At half time of this game the Greenies had held their opponents to a 14-14 tie but in the second half the Eagles sparked to a 33-14 victory.

E. G. H. S. then played host to Boyertown in the traditional "Turkey Day" game. In this game the Bears squeezed out a 13-7 victory over the Yellow Jackets.

Mr. Pritchard assisted by Mr. Guldin, took over the coaching duties, and through their leadership the team had shown great improvement. It is expected that the fine coaching of these two men will bring to E. G. H. S. a victorious team in '48.

Girls' Hockey

The Greenies had a rather successful season with very good playing in all the games. The girls won four of their games, lost four and tied two. The best game of the season was the game played with and at Pennsburg when our girls tied the score 1-1. The only game delayed by bad weather conditions was that played with Schwenksville on Nov. 11. Otherwise our girls were favored by cold, brisk days.

The whole team played well this season but special credit goes to several members of the hockey eleven. Betty Baseley, left wing position, scored six of the total 21 points scored in all the games. Doris Christman scored seven points and Gloria Christman tallied up five. Marilyn Stauffer and Shirley Schlicher are given credit for the remaining number of points. However, it would have been impossible for these goals to have been made if they had not been backed by the excellent playing of every member of the team.

The front line consisted of Betty Baseley, Betty Wiegner, who alternated at inners, Marilyn Stauffer, Doris Christman, Gloria Christman, and Shirley Schlicher. They were backed up in the defensive positions by Phyllis Hillegass, Kitty Hendricks, Mary Lou Zwoyer, Lillian Stahl, Nancy Kern, and Anna Lynch.

Basketball

This year for the first time in the history of East Greenville High School, the E.G.H.S. Cagers had a gymnasium they could call their own. Since the court was not completed at the time scheduled, the Greenies and their new coach, Mr. Guldin, got off to a late start.

The Greenies were overpowered by their first few opponents. They took these lacerations without losing their spirit or sportsman-like ways. The team gradually improved and came back to give every team they met a tough time, and left memories of well-played and hard-fought games to many sports-loving spectators.

Most of the scoring honors went to the underclassmen. Richard Ziegler had 126 points. Richard Leister had 61 points. Raymond Stoneback had 43 points.

Girls' Basketball

The Greenies, handicapped by lack of facilities for practice, got off to a poor start with a 30-21 loss to West Pottsgrove. However, the season became more successful as the next few games were played and the girls had a chance to practice in the new gym.

The whole season was marked by the fine spirit and co-operation shown in overcoming the faults caused by inadequate practice by the girls in the initial portion of the season. The Greenies showed this fine spirit by winning six out of eleven games and by tying for second place in the league. On a large part this was due to the encouragement and able coaching of the team by Mrs. Moser.

The highest scorer of the season was Gloria Christman with 112 points; Betty Freed followed with 66; Ruth Elaine Freed scored 43. The remaining number of points were scored by Betty Baseley and Mary Jane Hillegass.

Baseball

Play Ball! is the cry that can be heard the first day Mr. Robin leaves out with a chirp of springtime.

This cry was shouted by a record turnout of fifty-two boys including four lettermen who reported for practice under the coaching of Mr. Roth and Mr. Guldin.

This year the team has a ten game league schedule and also has two games scheduled with Coopersburg which is not in the league.

We think this team of very good ball players will have an excellent chance of taking the league championship.

Class History

In September, 1944, we embarked on our voyage through E. G. H. S. with 79 students, of which 54, were non-resident students. After overcoming our initial shyness, many friendships were formed that will last far into the future.

As bashful freshmen we chose the following class officers: President, Charles Wetzel; Vice-President, Stanley Godshall; Secretary, Shirley Emele . . . chose navy blue and gold as our class colors . . . had a seemingly serious romance between Betty Wiegner and Gene Angstadt. After becoming acclimated to our new environment we settled down to three more years of hard work.

As sophomores (wise fools) we had a class enrollment of 67. Our president was Gene Angstadt, our vice-president, Robert Smith and secretary-treasurer, Helen Geiger.

Our main subject that year was English, as taught by Miss DeAngelis. We can never forget "A Tale of Two Cities" and those barrages of paper airplanes soaring about the room, can we, Joanne?

This was also the year we witnessed a love triangle within our class ranks. The members of the triangle were Evan Krantzley, Mary Pfommer and Lorraine Ritter. There was quite a bit of rivalry for a while, but Mary finally emerged victorious.

Another romance, which is still going strong, was started then. This concerned Phyllis Hillegass and Bill Ackerman.

Among some of the extra-curricular affairs was a class party, which was held in the Realty Hall. We had refreshments, dancing, games, and all had a good time.

As busy juniors we eagerly welcomed six new classmates from Red Hill. For our class officers we chose: Evan Kranzley, President; Gene Angstadt, Vice-President; Helen Geiger, Secretary; and Charles Wetzel, Treasurer. We ordered our class rings in October and were overjoyed at their comparatively early arrival in January.

We set February 22 as the date of our Junior Prom, and signed Bob Smith and his orchestra to furnish the music. However, King Winter had other plans, and threw a blizzard that week-end. The orchestra was unable to make it and we postponed the Prom to March 22. It seemed that the postponement was in our favor, because we presented the most successful Junior Prom ever to be given at E. G.

After the success of our Prom, we turned our attention to a play. The committee selected "Growing Pains" and it was presented in the Grand Theatre on April 29 and 30. This, too, was a smashing success.

This was a year of many new romances. To mention a few: Mary Jane and Jim . . . Helen and Charles (Kershner, that is) . . . Evan and Norma Edge. You could always hear Norma Ackerman and Esther Benfield discussing Johnny and Fritz, even while eating.

Now at last we are seniors. With an enrollment of 57 boys and girls we chose the following class officers to guide us through our senior year: President, Evan Kranzley; Vice-President, Gene Angstadt; Secretary, Betty Wiegner; and Treasurer, Charles Wetzel.

Entering our Senior year we found ourselves engulfed in a new regime. But we as seniors managed to adjust ourselves to the various changes which accompanied it.

Our name cards and pennants arrived early due to the efficiency of our class secretary.

Under the guidance of Mrs. Groome we chose our class play "Dear Ruth." But due to circumstances beyond our control the play was postponed until our new director, Mr. Carmody took over. It was given February 26 and 27 and was a sell-out both nights.

We were proud to see Don Huber and Gene Angstadt come out in the upper ten per cent of 46,112 seniors taking the Pepsi Cola Scholarship Test.

Now with about three months to go until graduation, we still have a lot to look forward to and to accomplish: the completion of the Conifer, which we hope to make better than ever . . . our Senior Prom coming up on May 22, for which we have signed The Harry Romig Orchestra under the direction of Matt Gillespie . . . a top-flight senior assembly . . . and finally on June 3, our commencement exercises, the first to be held in our new auditorium.
